FOR THE ALUMNI OF SAINT JOSEPH'S COLLEGE

VOL. 18 — No. 6

Fund Appeal Head Emphasizes Need

Early response to the 1956 Fund Appeal is encouraging, according to Fr. John Lefko, director of the Appeal. The first mailing went out during the week of Feb. 25.

Fr. Lefko and other Association officers, emphasizing that the amount is less important than the number of contributors, express confidence that the total number will pass the 1000-mark this year.

Although alumni are encouraged to specify the purpose for which their gifts are made—in cases where the donor has a strong preference—Fr. Lefko was gratified last year that so many gifts were unrestricted as to use.

"It means to the College administration," he said, "that alumni understand the College's pressing problems. In tuition and fees, a St. Joe student now pays $442.25 per year. This is less than 60 per cent of his education cost. The balance is provided by individuals and corporations, and by the sacrifices of the priests, brothers and sisters on the campus.

"Student charges for room and board cover the cost of operating these auxiliary services. But the real educational costs—teacher salaries, library and laboratory expenses, the maintenance of grounds and buildings—are only partly met by the student payments.

"Moreover, there is constant need for still more scholarship aid for worthy students who cannot pay even the partial costs charged them.

"Alumni contributions are a tremendous help in meeting these current problems!"

St. Joe and I.I.T. In '3-2' Program

St. Joseph's College and the Illinois Institute of Technology, Chicago, have entered into a combined education program that will provide students with both a liberal arts and an engineering degree after only five years of study.

The announcement was made jointly this week by Prof. R. G. Owens, dean of engineering at the Institute, and the Rev. Edward A. Maziarz, dean of St. Joseph's College.

Patterned after "3-2 programs" already in operation between St. Joseph's and three other universities, the arrangement provides students with a broad and liberal educational background before specializing in an engineering field. Other schools cooperating with St. Joseph's in such programs are:

New Coach at DuSable Is SJC Graduate of '50

Andy Gallagher, '50, former football star at St. Joseph's, has been named head football coach at DuSable High School in Chicago.

The former Puma star was assigned to the DuSable coaching staff at the mid-year mark, after coaching one semester at Westcott High School and a full year at South Shore High School.

His predecessor, Coach Jim Brown, who for six years coached three sports at DuSable, will remain on the staff and concentrate on basketball and track. DuSable's football record for the last four seasons shows 22 wins, two losses, and a tie.

College to Honor Golden Jubilarians

As in former years, the priest-alumni of St. Joseph's are invited to help celebrate the annual feast day of the College's patron saint. This year the celebration at Collegeville will be held on May 1, the feast of St. Joseph the Worker.

Specially honored guests at the dinner following the mass will be the members of the Class of '06, who are celebrating the Golden Jubilee of their graduation.

Courses Are Added For Summer School

Fr. Edward Maziarz, director of the St. Joseph's Summer School, has announced that this year's session will extend from June 18 to July 28. New courses will be offered in Theology and Physical Education.

A decided enrollment increase over last year's record high is expected.

Fr. Kaiser Has New Book Ready

Fr. Edwin G. Kaiser, '15, professor of Religion at St. Joseph's College, has completed his latest book, an introduction to theology entitled Sacred Doctrine.

Newman Publishers of Westminster, Md., have accepted the book for publication. No release date has been announced.

Fr. Kaiser, a well-known theologian, lecturer, and a prolific writer, has contributed many articles to magazines. He has done numerous translations and is the author of several other religious books.

Directors Meet, Plan Merit Award; Board to Include Members-at-Large

A meeting of the Board of Directors of the Alumni Association, held March 10 on campus, resulted in plans for an Alumni Merit Award to be given outstanding members at unscheduled intervals.

Present for the meeting were Thomas Brier, first vice-president, of Gary; William Curosh, past president, of Whiting, Ind.; George McGuan of Griffith, Ind.; Frank Beckman of Fort Wayne; Joseph McGrath of Chicago; Fr. John M. Lefko, secretary-treasurer, and Hugh McAvoy, field secretary, both of Collegeville. The meeting followed lunch in the dining hall.

Matters Considered

Other business discussed by the Board included plans for the forthcoming election of officers, for the celebrations of the 50th and 25th anniversary classes this year; and for the 1956 Homecoming, which is scheduled for Oct. 27, the day of the Evansville game at St. Joseph's.

It was also voted unanimously to increase the size of the Board of Directors to include members-at-large. These will be appointed by the Board itself. At the present time the group consists only of elected and appointed officers and the presidents of the various local chapters.

Merit Award

The newly-approved Award, which probably will be the St. Joseph's College seal in a leather case, will be given whenever the Association considers appropriate. Initial recommendations may come from the faculty, but the Board of Directors will make final selections.

The purpose of the Award, according to the Board, is "to bring to the attention of the public the product of the College's educational program... namely, its distinguished past students.

"The Award is conferred on those who are exemplifying meritoriously in their daily lives the objectives of St. Joseph's College. In such alumni the indelible character of their education at St. Joseph's will be manifested in:

- "1. Loyalty to Christian Ideals in daily life;
- "2. Devotion to Christian principles in the professions or in business;
- "3. Leadership in social and civic activities; and
- "4. Interest in intellectual or cultural progress.

"Through this manner of honoring selected men who carry the College's ideals as their passport through life, St. Joseph's College hopes that the example of their careers will:

- "1. Be a source of edification to alumni, and present and future students;
- "2. Bring to the attention of parents the ideals of the College; and
- "3. Emphasize the skill and competence of its faculty."

Funeral in Illinois For George Cross, '40

George Cross, '40, was accidentally electrocuted Feb. 28, while installing a television cable near his home in O'Brien, Calif. The cable touched a high-power electric wire; Mr. Cross and a friend who was helping him were killed instantly.

Funeral services were held March 3 from St. Luke's Church in River Forest, Ill., his former hometown. A brother, Fr. Robert Cross, celebrated the funeral mass. Another brother, Fr. Leonard Cross, is a St. Joseph's alumnus of the class of '31.

Mr. Cross is survived by his widow and three children.

Linehan Family Famous in Louisville, May Hold St. Joe Record

Last month, in a letter printed in the "We Hear" column, Mike Linehan, '31, of Louisville, challenged the family-size supremacy of John R. Mattingly, '14, of Paris, Ill. (Aug. '55 issue, "Can Yours Top This.")

This month Mike sent Contact graphic proof of his paternal rating—seven sons and seven daughters, shown in the photograph on this page. Contact also got hold of one of the many stories published on the Linehans awhile back, and here it is . . .

Michael Linehan hasn't won a world championship for "lying" since 1945, but he has doubled the number of his children.

There are 14 little Linehans now—ranging from Mary Lois, 16, to two-month-old Kenneth Raye.

"We were just a small family then," said Linehan of 1945. That year there were only seven children.

Linehan, of 1531 Locust, won the "lying contest" at Burlington, Wis., by claiming he saved Louisville from flood by getting this Bourbon manufacturing community to vote itself dry.

His wife, Hilda, said yesterday that she still hasn't caught him telling a lie to her.

Mrs. Linehan admits it's something of a problem being the mother of so many children, but the older ones help her out. Mary Lois does housework and Dona, 15, and Betty Jean, 10, do some of the cooking.

The Linehans all eat at the same time.

"We just put the food on the table and it's dog eat dog," father commented.

"We don't have any leftovers," Mrs. Linehan added.

Almost all the older boys know how to take care of their younger brothers and sisters.

One of the big family problems, naturally, is who will get to look at what on the television set.

"First we thought we'd solve (Continued on Page Two)

We Hear

from PORTSMOUTH, Virginia

One of the few things that penetrates the military life is CONTACT. It reminds me of better times, but actually I have been fortunate thus far.

I was one of the few drafted into the Navy and one of the few draftees sent to a Naval service school. I am in a twelve-week Hospital Corpsman course. From there I will work in a hospital for six months; then not even the Navy knows where.

I met some of my classmates at Great Lakes, where I took my boot, and am curious as to how the others are doing.

I would appreciate your putting my address in the next issue, to enable some of the fellows to get in touch with me. (See "Under the Colors".)

Thank you,
Jack Heinen ('55)

from DICKINSON, North Dakota

I graduated from Marquette University School of Dentistry in 1955. Since then my Wisconsin wife of June 1955 (Shirley Maloney) and I have been living here in Dickinson. She has been a nurse at St. Joseph's Hospital here, and I've been practicing dentistry. Another Puma man, Tony Lambo ('50), was graduated from Marquette Dental also, in 1954—so, wherever we go, St. Joe is represented.

CONTACT is also very nice to keep us informed on the latest progress.

I shouldn't forget Con Fecher ('46), who also graduated from Marquette Dental in 1954. Con and Tony are both service dentists for the time being.

So long,

Thank you for the recent letter regarding my present address and whereabouts. Your interest in this matter is greatly appreciated.

During the past several years I have been moving rather rapidly from one address to another. My job as branch manager for Household Finance Corp., has brought me to 11 branches in seven different cities during the past eight years. The present address appears to be a rather permanent one, since I have taken on the responsibility of a wife and family. At the present time the family amounts to one future Pumaite (Kevin Patrick), age five months.

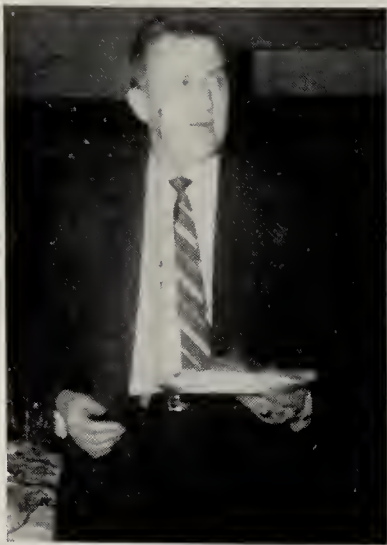

Best regards to you and the alumni group. Possibly we might get a chance to visit the campus sometime in the near future.

Very truly yours,

Lay Trustee Is Demo Candidate For Illinois Office

Arthur L. Hellyer of Elmhurst, Ill., a member of the Board of Lay Trustees of St. Joseph's College, who has held only one political elective office in his 57 years, is a candidate for state treasurer of Illinois.

Mr. Hellyer, lawyer and real estate broker and consultant, is the Democrat organization candidate, thus far without opposition in the April 10 primary elections.

His decision came as a surprise to political followers because his only previous public office was that of DuPage County treasurer from 1934 to 1938.

Mr. Hellyer is a native of New York City.

the problem by getting a wider screen," Mrs. Linehan said.

"Now it looks like we'll have to get two or three more sets, and maybe a couple of extra channels to keep these kids from fighting," Linehan added.

The Linehans went on their last picnic three years ago. Mrs. Linehan recalled they had to commandeer two cars besides their own to do it.

Linehan took all the children to the Cincinnati Zoo last year by driving there three times.

On Sunday the Linehans go to church in shifts.

Mrs. Linehan was asked if the family had many doctor bills.

"No, no doctor bills," Mrs. Linehan reflected. "Only maternity bills."

Linehan has worked for 20 years as a clerk for Huber and Huber Motor Express. "Actually," Mrs. Linehan said, "he's worked at every job except Mr. Huber's and he has his eyes on that."

Linehan also works three hours a night, four nights a week, at his own offset printing business. And at Christmas time he sells greeting cards.

Mr. and Mrs. Linehan were married 17 years ago.

The size of the family doesn't faze the former world's champion of the liars.

"One takes up all your time anyway," he said philosophically. "So what have you got to lose?"

Alumni Quickies

Gene O'Sullivan, '55, in the Army since Sept. 2 last year, is now assigned to European Headquarters Command in Heidelberg, Germany. (See "Under the Colors" for service address.) His new home address is 1042 Eastern Ave., Bellwood, Ill. . . .

Among those receiving graduate degrees at St. Louis University on Feb. 5, was John Wilkie Chung, '53, who was awarded the Master of Science (Research) . . . Jim Zid, '55, who was an overnight visitor at Collegeville late last month, was planning at that time to go into uniform on March 2. Jim's been employed by the accounting firm of Ernst and Ernst, Chicago, and expects to return to his job after the Army or Navy is through with him . . .

Fr. Joseph Jacobs, '34, athletic director, and Ed Cobett, '52, coach at St. Jude's School in Fort Wayne, are justly proud of their basketball team, which won the C.Y.O. Tournament in February by defeating St. Peter's in the final game. The Jacobs-Cobett combine, it will be remembered, also produced last season's football champs . . . The fourth child, a girl, was born Feb. 13, to Mr. and Mrs. John J. Hinders, '47, of Celina, Ohio. The baby's name is Elizabeth Mary . . .

Richard Russell Stang, alumnus of 1978 (according to proud father Jim Stang, '50, of Dayton), was born early in February. "Weighing in at 9 pounds," writes Jim, "he should well fill the fullback spot and help St. Joe through one or two undefeated seasons between '75 and '78. His sister and three other brothers will take care of the cheering department." . . . Don Leavitt, '46, St. Louis attorney and president of the local alumni chapter, is also teaching Patent Law at St. Louis University each Saturday morning . . .

Fr. Urban Siegrist, '28, is in St. Luke's Hospital, Chicago, where he underwent major surgery March 9, for the removal of an obstruction in the urinary tract. At last report his condition was satisfactory, but prayers for his recovery will still be appreciated . . .

Jake Voelker, '56, one of the January graduates, went right to work on the faculty of Roosevelt Military Academy in Illinois . . . and another mid-year product, Lynn Tabaka, '56, has accepted an excellent offer from U. S. Steel Corporation in Gary . . . and still another, Frank Lawler, '56, an accountant, has gone to work for the public accounting firm of Arthur Young and Company in Chicago . . .

Gilbert F. Sullivan, '41, is now executive vice-president of the Savage Lumber and Manufacturing Company in Lexington, Ky. The Sullivans and their family of seven children are living at 467 West Sixth St. . . . Don Kremp, '43, is a manufacturing engineer for the R.C.A. plant in Indianapolis. He's the father of three children, and lives at 533 N. Oakland Ave. . . . Another '43 man, also the father of three children, who's making rapid progress in industry is Charles Hoshaw, a general foreman for U. S. Rubber Co., in South Bend and in training for superintendent of manufacturing. The Hoshaws live at 1124 E. McKinley . . . Assistant service manager for Dun and Bradstreet in Cleveland is Tom Weber, '43.

Charles Tait, Jr. Joins His Father In Michigan Firm

Charles H. (Bud) Tait, Jr., '53, recently joined his father in business in South Haven, Mich. In reporting the new association, the Feb. 29 issue of the Kalamazoo Gazette had this to say:

"Charles H. Tait, owner of the Book and Art Shop and mayor of South Haven, announced today that his son, Charles H. Tait, Jr., is now associated with him in business.

"The week also marks the 35th anniversary of Tait's becoming a local merchant.

His Book and Art Shop, now located on Phoenix St., is a far cry from the small store on Center St. that he bought in 1921 from the late Henry Reusch. Today Tait is the largest supplier of office equipment, pianos, phonographs and stationery in Van Buren and Allegan counties. "Tait is now retiring from all public offices, he says, on account of his health, and expects to retire from active business in five years, when his son will assume full charge of the Book and Art Shop.

"Young Tait is a graduate of St. Joseph's College in Rensselaer, Ind. Prior to joining his father's business he worked for one year with the Royal Typewriter Company in San Francisco and with Remington Rand in Detroit and Grand Rapids."

June Graduates In Job Market

Replics to "want ads" on St. Joe's graduating seniors, run in the last two issues of Contact, continue to come in. Several are about to result in employment which undoubtedly will benefit employer, employee, and St. Joseph's College.

Here are some more prospects. Alumni knowing of possible openings for which the men might be fitted, should contact the SJC Placement Bureau at once for further information.

Mathias T. Zeller Wins Promotion

Mathias T. Zeller, '18, of Michigan City has been named coal and yard foreman at Northern Indiana Public Service Company's new Dean H. Mitchell Generating Station in Gary, according to a recent announcement by the company.

Mr. Zeller launched his NIPSCO career on May 11, 1921, as a meter maintenance man in the Hammond division. He advanced through a series of positions until 1932, when he became an electrician in the company's Electric Operating department. Four years later he was promoted to maintenance electrician at the Michigan City generating station. In 1947 he was named watch electrician, and in 1953 assistant plant watch engineer.

An active member of the Michigan City Knights of Columbus, Mr. Zeller also enjoys farming during his spare moments. He and his wife, Vivian, have three sons and one daughter.

Applications Up Over '55 Mark

Applications for admission to St. Joseph's next year are running nearly double those received last year at this time, according to Fr. Charles Robbins, registrar. As of Feb. 23, a total of 208 applications were in, compared to 115 at that time last year.

Because of this rapid application rate, Fr. Richard Baird, admissions counselor, advises all alumni having friends who would like to attend St. Joe to have them send in their applications soon. Delay may result in non-admission.

St. Joseph's Shares In Foundation Grant

International Harvester Foundation has made their third annual grant of $7500 to the Associated Colleges of Indiana. One-twelfth of this amount, or $625, will be the share of St. Joseph's College.

The Foundation will distribute $57,000 to 22 state associations of independent colleges throughout the United States, according to John L. McCaffrey, president of International Harvester.

grams are the University of Notre Dame, Purdue University, and Rose Polytechnic Institute.

Under the plan, students may enroll at St. Joseph's for the first three years, during which they complete the liberal arts requirements for a Bachelor's degree, also taking pre-professional courses in the engineering field.

In the fourth year, the "3-2" students may now transfer to the Illinois Institute of Technology for an additional two years of study in their chosen field of engineering. Upon completion of their work, the graduates may be awarded a Bachelor of Arts degree from St. Joseph's, and a Bachelor of Science degree in Engineering from IIT.

Illinois Tech, recognized as one of the nation's leading engineering schools, offers degrees in technical drawing and in civil, mechanical, industrial, chemical, metallurgical, food, electrical, fire protection and safety engineering.

Cancellation Brings "The Valiant" to SJC

"Twelve Angry Men," the play originally scheduled as St. Joseph's second major production of the school year, has been cancelled. In its place, the Columbian Players will present "The Valiant", by Holworthy Hall and Robert Middlemass, for entry in the one-act play contest at Marian College, March 17 and 18.

The cancellation was made necessary by difficulties in the rehearsal schedule of the play.

The cast of "The Valiant" includes Bill Schuler of Cary, Ill., Bernie Balas of Gary, Ind., Charles Vietzen of Oak Park, Ill., Greg Barrett and Leo Zeisel of Chicago, and Mary Catherine Reitz of Rensselaer.

Ralph Cappuccilli is directing the play.

Froning Rites Held Feb. 9 in Ohio

Funeral services for Paul J. Froning, '09, were held Feb. 9, in Holy Trinity Church, Coldwater, Ohio.

Mr. Froning, who was 69, died suddenly at his home in Coldwater on Feb. 5. The cause of his death was a heart attack.

The deceased had been employed for the past 33 years as a foundry superintendent at the New Idea plant. Active in church and community affairs, Mr. Froning was completing 40 years of continuous public service. He had served as village clerk in both Osgood and Minister, Ohio, as member of the Coldwater village council for several terms and of the Coldwater Board of Education as an elective and appointive officer for the last 30 years. He was currently serving in his 21st year as clerk-treasurer of the Board.

Fr. Raymond Grevenkamp, '42, officiated at the funeral mass. He was assisted by Fr. George Grevenkamp, '17, and Fr. Andrew Hoying. Burial was in St. Elizabeth Cemetery.

Surviving with his widow are two sons, Maurice and Dr. Louis Froning, at home; one daughter, Mrs. James Gast of St. Henry; five sisters; and five brothers, Ben and George of Coldwater, Charles of Montezuma, Henry Froning, '08, of South Bend, and Clem Froning, '29, of St. Sebastian.

Billy May Will Play For '56 Junior Prom

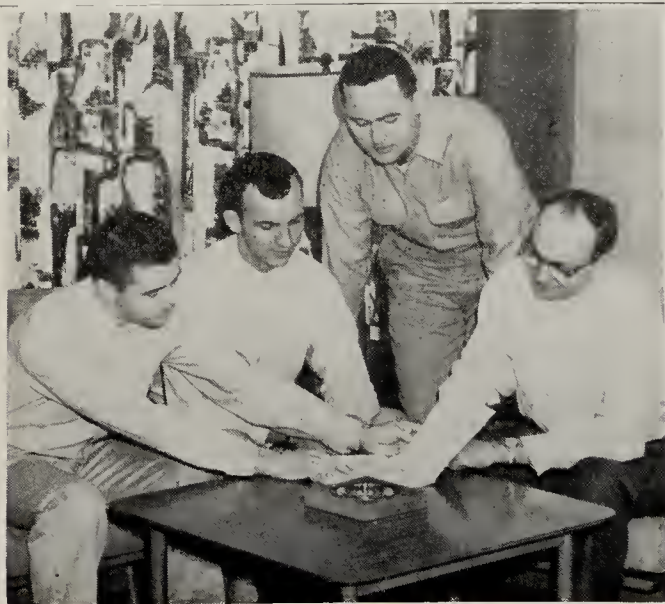

The Billy May band, featuring Sam Donahue, will appear at St. Joseph's annual Junior Prom to be held in the college fieldhouse. Saturday, May 19, is the date chosen for the prom by the junior class, sponsor of the event.

Prom co-chairman Glenn Murphy of Chicago and Al Salerno of Niles, Ohio, have announced that this year's prom theme will be "The Showboat."

Dear Diary, 1901

A loyal alumnus, who prefers to remain anonymous, sends CONTACT the following excerpts from his Diary while a student at St. Joseph's during the scholastic year 1901-02

- Sept. 5, 1901—Left home.
- Sept. 6—President McKinley shot at Buffalo, New York Exposition. Don't know whether I am going to die before McKinley or not, because I am so homesick. Student body numbered just under 100 counting both halls.
- Sept. 14—McKinley died at 4:30 p. m.
- Sept. 15—Baseball game—Aquino Hall 13, Xavier Hall 14.
- Sept. 16—Fight in dormitory, Holthouse vs. Bernard.
- Sept. 19—No studies in memory of President McKinley.
- Sept. 22—Baseball game—Xavier Hall 8, Aquino Hall 6.
- Oct. 6—Played baseball in afternoon on team with Frank Theobald and Henry Hoertsman.
- Oct. 8—Pumpkin Connell and Ottke went on the lake to the island and their boat got away. They had to wade to shore.
- Oct. 15—Lake was to be drained and cleaned so fish were taken out with a tennis net. There was one ten-pounder and several smaller bass and carp. The college barber is Ed Werling. The Commandant of Cadets is William R. Arnold.
- Oct. 24—We were free in the afternoon to witness a football game between Rensselaer and Lafayette. The former won 11-0.
- Oct. 27—Roughhouse in study hall. Wastebaskets emptied into desks, desks exchanged and many things topsy-turvy. Brother Herman, the Prefect, said he would sit there all night, if necessary, until everything was put in order; but about 8:45 p. m., nothing being done, Father Liebrat came in and said "No more free days", and he and Brother Herman picked up everything.
- Oct. 31—Halloween, but no mischief done.
- Nov. 3—Played football. We beat Ed Cook's team 10-0.
- Nov. 5—Colgosz, the murderer of President McKinley, was electrocuted.
- Nov. 7—Went hunting with Van Flanders and others. Got 13 rabbits and 10 squirrels.
- Nov. 9—Football game—Rensselaer vs. Eclectic Medical College of Chicago.
- Nov. 15—First snow which did not last long.
- Nov. 17—Change in refectory and I got on Ed Pryor's table.
- Nov. 23—Football game between Chicago Tigers and Rensselaer. The latter won 6-0.
- (Note: These were the days when three downs were given to make five yards, and all passing had to be to the back.)
- Nov. 25—Terrible roughhouse in the dormitory until midnight. Five of the top performers got a public calling down.
- Nov. 28—Thanksgiving, football game in town. Bennet Medical 0, Rensselaer 17. In the evening the A. L. S. played the Prodigal Law Students.
- Dec. 2—Big football game. Rensselaer vs. South Bend. Lou Sammon of Notre Dame was umpire of the game. Neither side scored. Pat O'Dea, the great punter, played fullback for South Bend. Fortin and Winters of the Notre Dame team played with South Bend. Moon, the town blacksmith of Rensselaer, played right tackle. Saylor was fullback for Rensselaer and two brothers played right half and left half. Before the game there was quite an exhibition of drop kicking from the 50 yard line.
- Dec. 4—Joe Dabblet and I went hunting, but did not see any game.
- Dec. 11—Student took the hammers out of all the bells and consequently there were no calls to study at 5:00 p. m. By 6:00 p. m. everyone was in the study hall waiting for the supper bell. The Prefect announced that since all the bells were out of order, there was no way to give the signal and that he had had his supper, and that there would not be any signal given until the bells were repaired. The prankster quickly found one of the hammers and then we went to supper.
- Jan. 6—Started back to Rensselaer after Christmas vacation. In Indianapolis met Jim Quinn, John O'Donnell, Joe Bryan and Maurice O'Connor and took the midnight train from there. Met John Wessel, Paul Welsh, Mike Shea, Johnie Sullivan and Lawrence Monohan, all of Ft. Wayne, on the train. Arrived at Rensselaer at 4:30 a. m., tired out and homesick, with studies to start at 7:15 a. m.

Represent SJC
At Health Meet

Representing St. Joseph's College last weekend at the Tri-State Health Conference meeting in Highland Park, Ill., were Richard Scharf, '38, of the SJC faculty, and Miss Nell Harris, RN, director of health service.

The meeting, held March 2 and 3 in the Moraine Hotel, was attended by approximately 200 representatives of colleges throughout Indiana, Illinois and Wisconsin. College programs in the health services, health education and environmental health were discussed with noted experts in each of the fields.

Mr. Scharf, who was a member of the Executive Committee for the meeting, also delivered the recorder's report for clinical services.

With the 1955-56 basketball season over, St. Joseph's College can look back on a fairly successful year. The Pumas finished with a record of ten wins and nine losses.

In the Indiana Collegiate Conference, St. Joe wound up in a tie with DePauw for fourth place on the basis of a 6-6 mark. Evansville (10-2) repeated as conference champs with Butler (8-4) and Valparaiso (8-4) tied for second. Behind St. Joe finished Indiana State (2-10), and Ball State (2-10), tied for fifth.

After dropping the opener to Wabash 65-57, the Pumas won four straight home games, beating the Alumni team 83-81, Bellarmine 87-82, Evansville 75-73, and DePauw 80-77.

After a three week lay-off over the Christmas holidays, St. Joe lost their first conference game to Valpo on Jan. 7, 85-81 at the Valparaiso gymnasium. Returning to Collegeville, the Pumas ran their winning streak to six by beating Butler 77-75 and Indiana State 92-85.

On Jan. 17, the Pumas traveled to Muncie, Ind., and were handed their worst defeat of the season by Ball State. The score: 106-67. Two nights later St. Joe came back home to hammer Marian College 98-63.

After the annual two-week break for semester exams, the Pumas went to Indiana State, still looking for their first road victory but came out on the short end of a 82-70 score.

The Pumas finally broke the "away-game jinx" on Feb. 3, beating Marian College 84-67 at Indianapolis. The next night St. Joseph's trampled St. Norbert's College 89-73 at the St. Joe Fieldhouse. Taking to the road, the Pumas were handed two more defeats. The first was an 89-70 shellacking from Evansville; the second was a heartbreaking 69-67 loss to Indiana Central.

Returning to the friendly confines of Collegeville on Feb. 14, the Pumas gained an even split with Ball State for the season by beating the Cardinals 91-80. St. Joe grabbed an early lead, fought off a Ball State rally in the opening minutes of the second half, and won going away. Mainstay of the Puma attack was Greg Jancich. The big sophomore forward from Whiting, Ind., collected 34 points to lead all scorers. Jancich also tied a conference record in this game by hitting 14 free throws without a miss. Freshman guard Dan Rogovich was second high scorer for St. Joe with 24 markers.

On Jan. 18, the Pumas traveled to Indianapolis and suffered a 74-58 lacing by the Bulldogs of Butler University. Ted Guzek of Butler was high point man in the game with 29 points. Dan Rogovich's 19 markers were best among St. Joe point getter's.

Dan Rogovich's basket with one second remaining provided the margin of victory for the Pumas over DePauw University on Feb. 21 at Greencastle. Rogovich recovered the tip from a jumb ball 35 feet from DePauw's basket and threw in a long overhead hook to give St. Joe a 76-75 victory. Greg Jancich was the leading scorer in the game, registering 24 points on seven baskets and ten charity tosses.

On Feb. 23 St. Joseph's went all the way to West DePere, Wis., to take on St. Norbert's College and suffered a 104-96 setback. The game was a give-and-take affair, going into a double overtime before the outcome was decided. Greg Jancich led the Pumas in scoring with 27 points.

St. Joe concluded the year on Feb. 28, when they played host to their arch-rivals, the Crusaders of Valparaiso University. Valpo made it two in a row this year by walking off with a 75-59 decision. The Crusaders took control in the early minutes of the game and managed to stay just out of the range of the Pumas to take home the game. Dan Rogovich was high point man for St. Joe with 21 markers.
